6. Tucson Police Department:

Note: Item was taken out of order, and considered after Item #3

7. Office of Independent Police Auditor

Mitch Kagen reported that on Friday, November 8th, 2024, several CPARB members attended a police training session focused on hands-on experience with both lethal and less-lethal firearms equipment. The training included a demonstration of the use of training force, where some officers participated in various scenarios to showcase the application of a wrap. He also emphasized the importance of logging and emailing training hours to Chair Calhoun for inclusion in the ongoing training hours spreadsheet. Additionally, Kagen mentioned that 19 community service officers are joining the team, discussing topics such as OPS, oversight, ethical dependencies, and behavioral concerns. This coming Thursday, 19 officers will graduate as part of their basic training process.

8. CPARB Vacancies

The commission reported vacancies in Ward 1 and Ward 2, and Mitch Kagen stated that a pitch is currently being made to try and get Jerry Flanery on as a full member.

9. Future Agenda Items

- Elections for Chair and Vice Chair
- Gun Intel Presentation
- January – Street Racing response

10. Adjournment

Chair Calhoun adjourned the meeting at 6:38 p.m.
