5. Outreach

- Inter-organizational Discussion

Invited guests, Lee Bucyk and Andrew Saal, shared their respective organizational priorities, projects, and challenges. The Commission seeks to initiate dialogue with our community's various LGBTQ+ adjacent groups, and to better understand the current conditions under which they strive to serve the public.

Commissioner Webb brought up the Fast-Track Cities initiative in which the City of Tucson participates. The commissioners expressed interest in hearing more about its scope, function, and implications.

6. Vacancies, Recruitment, and Appointments

- Current vacancies

Two At-Large positions remain unfilled, as is the Mayor's representative.

- Upcoming vacancies

The terms of three commissioners (representing Wards 3, 5, and 6) will expire December 1, 2025. If they desire reappointment they will contact their respective ward office.

- Demographics

7. Future agenda items

- Strategy and Community Action Report

No new information available.

8. Adjournment

Motion to adjourn at 7:15 pm was made by Commissioner Snowden, seconded by Commissioner Goldkuhl and passed by voice vote.
