4) Report from the Chair

Chair Stormont informed the Commission of the Mayor and Council's approval of the Energy

Cooperation Agreement (ECA), and that it is the intention of Mayor and Council that implementation of projects funded in the ECA will be reviewed by the CCES who will be requested to provide recommendations to Mayor and Council for their action

5) Energy Options research update by Commissioner Sanghi

Commissioner Sanghi presented the results of his research about Distributed Capacity Procurement with suggestions relevant to the City of Tucson. He requested that the CCES review the report with the possibility of making a recommendation to the Mayor and Council on the topic.

6) Subcommittee reports

The Outreach and Communication subcommittee will be tabling at the April 12th, 2026 Cyclovia event.

Executive Committee recommended to meet to approve outstanding minutes and review current bylaws

Franchise Committee has decided to table the draft letter on the Franchise topic intended for Mayor and Council until after the results of the November election.

4) Call to Audience -

Lee Ziesche - requested that public outreach and comment opportunities allow more notice, and occur at more accessible times and locations than the times and locations provided for the recent ECA and Franchise opportunities.

Bruce Plenk - Suggested that an election booklet on the Franchise Agreement with opinions pro and con be provided with the November election materials.

Ray Winch requested that if public materials are provided on the Franchise issue, that public disclosure be made about money received for their publication.

5) Future Agenda Items

- Provide time at future CCES meetings for public input within the agenda, not solely during Call to Audience to allow discussion.
- Discuss public access and timing for townhalls
- Discuss DCP report and review for comment
- Request for a standing agenda item to discuss Mayor and Council tasks for CCES
- Review options for CCES meeting time outside of work 9-5 work hours

6) Adjournment Called at 4:00pm by Commission Chair Stormont

Under State Open Meeting Law, no topics other than those noticed in the agenda may be discussed.
