4. Guest Speaker - Jen Allen, Pima County Board of Supervisors Board Chair/District

Jen Allen spoke of District 3’s priorities: addressing climate change, water conservation, increasing affordable housing, reforming the criminal justice policies, and advocating for rural communities. She passed out her district’s annual report. She said last year they saw the rise of data centers in Southern Arizona, catching local communities unprepared. A proposed land sale and rezoning for a data center was presented without disclosing critical information like water and energy use. She voted against the land sale and rezoning but was outvoted 3-2.

Chair Fitch asked her how the PCTWC can help District 3 and if any grants were available to help our commission with the building structure and other resources we need to keep the commission running. Jen said she and her staff would look into some grants or bonds available. The former District 3 Supervisor, Sharon Bronson, was the go-to person for “Women in Government” and she was asked if she could fill the same role.

Molly Ring provided the Treasurer’s Report for period 2/1/26 thru 2/28/26. The PCTWC has maintained the account balance at $35,478. The new income is due to the Presidio rent catching up. No new donations came in. Utility costs were lower because billing is behind but utilities will catch up next month.

There was a suggestion to include an Act Blue QR code to the social media accounts to encourage page visitors to donate. It was moved by Sierra Yamanaka, duly seconded by Annie Sykes, to accept the treasurer’s report. Motion carried by a voice vote of 12 to 0.

a. Nominating Committee -

Joyce Wong reported the exterior work was almost done. There is still work to be done on the awning and the interior paint. A contractor suggested to prioritize one room at a time for the interior paint project after the adobe repairs have been made to be more cost-effective if the work is to be done by August. The commissioners will continue to call painters to get price quotes.

The adobe repairs are approximately $5,000 and the keyless lock will be installed soon. Melinda Gomez said she can contact someone to donate funds for the adobe repair. She will report back at the next meeting.
