Discussion related to our next training webinar. Emily Freeman – Boulder CO is scheduled to give a presentation on Deconstruction and a Circular Economy on May 5 at noon Arizona time. Ms. Freeman mentioned the Build/ReUse conference will be in Phoenix this November and highly recommended attendance. This webinar follows up on the first webinar on this topic given by Stephanie Phillips from the San Antonio Historic Preservation Department. We are hoping for good participation. The May 5 presentation will be recorded and available online.

The Arizona Preservation Conference always has very good training opportunities. It is unfortunate that it won't be held this year.
