4. Pima County Historic Landmark Nomination Review

Pima County Zoning Ordinance, Chapter 18.63

- a. 7110 N Camino de Fosforo (Parcel #108-05-0960), Celestine Barby II House Action
This is an owner-initiated Historic Landmark nomination. The Celestine Barby II House is recommended eligible for designation as a Pima County Historic Landmark as an exceptional and highly intact example of late Modern residential architecture designed by nationally significant architect Bruce Goff. Designed beginning in 1974 and completed circa 1976 for artist and collector Celestine “Lestie” Barby, the residence is the second completed house Goff designed for Barby and represents the culmination of a client-architect relationship spanning more than a decade. The house retains a high degree of integrity. Staff recommends approval of the Historic Landmark nomination. PRS may recommend approval, approval with conditions, or denial of the nomination.

Staff Rose presented the Historic Landmark nomination. Commissioners asked questions and discussed the project.

Action was taken.

Motion: Commissioner McDonald moved that the Plans Review Subcommittee recommend approval of the Historic Landmark designation for the Celestine Barby II House, 7110 N. Camino de Fosforo, finding that the property meets the applicable criteria for designation as a Pima County Historic Landmark, has been determined eligible under Criterion C for listing in the National Register of Historic Places by the Arizona State Historic Preservation Office based on its architectural significance as a highly intact work of master architect Bruce Goff, its distinctive characteristics and high artistic values as an example of late Modern residential architecture, its significant relationship to its Catalina Foothills setting, and its retention of sufficient historic integrity to convey that significance.

Commissioner Houghton seconded the motion.

No discussion was held.

The motion passed unanimously 3-0. (Chair Majewski absent)

6. Rio Nuevo Area (RNA) Review Cases (Item was taken out of order)

5. City of Tucson Historic Landmark (HL) Nomination Review (Item was taken out of order)
UDC Section 5.8.5

a. 2802 S Cottonwood Ln (Parcel #11918012M), Russell-Randolph House Action

This is an owner-initiated Historic Landmark nomination. The Russell-Randolph House is recommended eligible as a City of Tucson Historic Landmark as a highly intact example of mid-century residential architecture designed by prominent local architect, Judith Chafee. The single-family courtyard residence was built between 1981 [and] 1983 by owner-builder David Russell and Susan Randolph. The house retains the physical characteristics, materials, and setting necessary to convey its significance, contributing to a broader understanding of Tucson's postwar development and artistic heritage. Staff recommends approval of the HL nomination. PRS may recommend approval, approval with conditions, or denial of the nomination.

City of Tucson Historic Landmark (HL) Nomination Review

Staff Contact: Desiree Aranda, Historic Preservation Officer

Staff Aranda presented the Historic Landmark nomination. Commissioners asked questions and discussed the project.

Action was taken.

Motion: Commissioner McDonald moved that the Plans Review Subcommittee recommend approval of the Russell-Randolph House for designation as a City of Tucson Historic Landmark. The property meets the stated purpose of the Historic Landmark designation as outlined in the City of Tucson Land Use Code. The Russell-Randolph House contributes to the educational, cultural, economic, and general welfare of the community through its preservation as a significant historic resource. Its designation will ensure the continued protection and appropriate rehabilitation of a property that embodies Tucson's twentieth-century architectural and cultural development. The Russell-Randolph House satisfies the criteria set forth in Section 5.8.5 of the City of Tucson Unified Development Code Standards for Establishing or Amending Historic Landmark designation. The property is a historic building that is individually eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places at the local level of significance as part of the oeuvre of Judith Chafee. It is a highly intact example of mid-century residential architecture designed by Judith Chafee; the house retains the physical characteristics, materials, and setting necessary to convey its significance. The Russell-Randolph House remains situated within its original suburban semi-rural context and contributes to a broader understanding of Tucson's postwar development and artistic heritage. Its preservation as a Historic Landmark will ensure that this important cultural resource remains legible within its historic setting and continues to contribute to the understanding of the community's architectural and cultural history.

Commissioner Houghton seconded the motion.

No discussion was held.

The motion passed unanimously 3-0. (Chair Majewski absent)
